

Fairmount Corridor Station Enhancements

Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority

After helping lead an active public engagement process, the Collaborative provided landscape architectural services to integrate new Fairmount Line transit stations with surrounding neighborhoods.

The project involved upgrading two stations and the construction of up to four new stations along the corridor. Also included were the reconstruction and rehabilitation of existing bridges that span the rail right of way, construction of a new interlocking, and upgrade of the existing signal system.

